Presentation
5 Things You Didn't Know LiveU Could Do
 by Yervant, Technical Director & Sales Engineer, Varto Technology

Varto Technologies is proud to host the Jersey Access Group meeting once again at our facility in East Rutherford, NJ. Joining us on Oct 26th will be LiveU's Mike Mahoney, Director of US Channel Sales who will present the latest solutions from LiveU like the LU810 & LU610S 5G, 4K rackmount contribution encoders along with the LU800 and LU300s field units. Following the presentation, Varto Technologies will demonstrate some features hidden away in the LiveU lineup! Read more

Legislation
A Retrospective on the Importance of PEG - The Full Picture
 by Dave Garb, Legislative Committee Chair

Last month we talked a little about how PEG Television Channels showed their true value to our individual communities during the pandemic. We all embarked on a "fast tracked" learning curve in order to deliver important information and programming to our audiences.

Local governments, schools, small businesses, community organizations and of course, our residents, all benefited immensely because of the endeavors of their individual access channels.

PEG organizations are the ones who truly bleed the slogan "As Local, As Local Gets"! Or should we say Hyperlocal???

President's Message
You + 1 Committee = JAG Member Bob Duthaler

A math problem? It's not a math problem, but rather an organizational problem. But just like a math problem it has a solution. So, let's break down the problem and together we will reach the solution. Read more

Member Spotlight:
Despite Municipal Building Closure, North Brunswick TV Overcomes Challenges
 by Craig Yetsko, Station Manager, North Brunswick Television

Looking back at the past two and a half years, operations at North Brunswick TV could best be summed up with a quote from the movie Heartbreak Ridge as Clint Eastwood's character, Gunnery Sergeant Tom Highway told his platoon: Improvise, Overcome, Adapt. The station overcame and adapted to the COVID-19 pandemic in a number of ways.
