News from Trenton & Washington DC

by Dave Garb, Legislative Committee Chair

A lot of decisions have happened in our nation's capital this past month. Here is a brief rundown of a few of the current actions that will have an effect on local governments, as well as decision that will change internet policies and protect consumers:

- DOJ's ADA Rule for State and Local Governments
- FCC RESTORES NET NEUTRALITY: Reasserts Broadband Jurisdiction, Reestablishing National Open Internet Standard
- FCC, FTC Formalize Partnership for Protecting the Open Internet

All Your Membership Benefits, In One Day!!

By Bob Duthaler, President, JAG

There are many reasons to be a Jersey Access Group member. You can interact with members who do the same job as you, access special group pricing from JAG organizational members, participate in face-to-face networking and educational and interactive sessions. While these are available to JAG members all year, what if you could access all that in just one day? Wouldn't you take advantage of it? Well, you can at the JAG Conference on Thursday May 16 and you still have time to register.

This event has it all! Educational and training sessions, vendors on hand demonstrating some of the latest gear and services, networking with vendors and other members, and an evening awards show that highlights all the great programming created by member stations throughout the state.. JAG's Annual Conference Is Here

By Geoffrey Belinfante, Conference Committee Vice Chair

As the opening to the old soap opera declares: Like sand in an hourglass, so are the days of our lives. Well, those sands will soon run out, so if you haven't signed up for the 2024 JAG Conference yet, you are rapidly running out of time. The conference is set to kick off at 8:00am on Thursday May 16 at the Crowne Plaza in Edison. And, if you're not there, you'll miss some exciting and informative sessions—not to mention a chance to socialize and network with both your fellow JAG Members and the teams from our Organizational Members.
